Coleman Memorial Park

Coleman Memorial Park is a 99 acre multi-use community park located in the City of Lebanon. Established in 1936 as a gift to the City of Lebanon, it was once the home to the estates of the Coleman and Brock families.

Today the park is home to:

- The Lauther Water Park, Owned and Operated by the City of Lebanon
- The Homestead Cafe and Miniature Golf Course
- Designated Playground Areas
- Tennis and Basketball Courts
- Many Rare and Beautiful Species of Trees and Shrubs
- Historic Markers and Furnace Ruins
- Nature Trails
- Picnic Areas and Pavilions (8)
- Baseball Fields (5), One Premium Regulation Field for League Use

Who We Are

The Friends of Coleman Memorial Park is a non-profit volunteer organization committed to raising funds to support the ongoing mission of the Parks Board of Trustee's. Their mission is to enrich the lives of those in our community by providing a place of natural beauty, peaceful inspiration and family oriented recreational activities.

Be A Friend

Our "Friends" are committed to raise funds and enlist volunteers to support the growth and maintenance of the park. We provide:

- various public and school programs
- yearly events within the park
- presentations and tours
- a quarterly newsletter

Volunteer
