

CHILDREN'S THEATER – July 15 and July 22

Gretna Theater for Young Audiences is bringing live theater to the Amphitheater at Coleman Memorial Park.

On July 15, the performance will be “Alexander Who’s NOT NOT NOT NOT NOT NOT Going To Move, based on the popular children’s book written by Judith Viorst. Alexander will NOT leave his best friend, baby sitter, neighbor’s terrific dog, or the couple who always give great treats on Halloween . . . just because his father got a new job in another city.

The July 22 performance, “Cinderella Confidential” will have everyone laughing. Written by Eric Coble, it’s the story about two investigative reporters who help the Prince find the owner of the shoe. Look for cameos from Pinocchio, Jack and his cow, and other celebrities in this no-hold-barred expose of the timeless love story and what it means to find – and TELL - the truth.

Both shows are FREE and begin at 5:00 PM. Visit the web site FriendsOfCmp.org for additional information.
